SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Green-Nelkirk.
Miss Elizabeth Green and Mr. Louis E. Nelkirk, were married at the bride's home on the Red House pike, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. D. H. Matherly officiating the couple. Miss Green is the daughter of Mr. Harlan Green and is very much admired. The groom is a son of Mr. Charlie Nelkirk, and is one of Madison's brave soldiers, having recently returned from twelve months overseas service. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Riddell. They will make their home at Irvine, where the best wishes of many friends follow them.

Entertainers for Visitors.
Mrs. H. Hogan, Edelen, of Lebanon, will entertain Thursday afternoon in honor of her home guests, Mrs. Gordon Mylks, of Kingston, Canada, and Mrs. Louis P. Todd, of this city.

Hurt-Starns.
Miss Mary Hurt, aged 16, and Mr. Gilbert Starns, both of the Paint Lick section, were married Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. O. J. Young, on the Summit.

Apollo Club.
The Apollo Club met Monday afternoon with Miss Mary Emily Chenault, in the country. The instrumental numbers were played by Misses Amy Turley, Margaret Turley, Emily Chenault, Nannie Evans, and Laura Blanton. Miss Mary Katherine Jasper read an interesting and instructive paper. Several guests were present.

Miss Lilly Entertains.
Miss Austin Lilly entertained with an informal dance on Saturday evening at her home in Mentelle Park, Lexington, in honor of Miss Nancy Crawford, the guest of her sister, Miss Jane Crawford. Mr. Alford Pond, of Canton, O., the guest in the home of Miss Margaret Tuttle, and other out-of-town guests, who were there for the dance given by the Alpha Xi Delta Fraternity on Friday evening.

The living rooms and the music room were decorated in pink mountain honeysuckle and ferns, as was also the dining room, where food, cakes and bonbons were served. The refreshments were in green and pink colors, in harmony with the decorations. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant E. Lilly, Miss Isabelle Dickey, and Miss Margaret Tuttle. About forty guests responded to the invitation and the hours were most pleasantly spent.

Entertained for Birthday.
Mrs. Sam Gordon entertained at her home on Prather avenue, in honor of her birthday. There were present for the happy occasion, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holland and family, Mr. Dick Holland and daughter, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. John Holland, and children, of Winchester.

Entertained Friends.
Misses Stella and Grace Rowlett entertained a number of their friends at their home on the Lancaster pike, Sunday afternoon. Among their guests were Misses Mattie Frost, Mattie Sharp Messers, Bob and Bill Frost, Doc Cotton, Tilford Frost, Edgar Rogers, and Roscoe Hysinger, of Mt. Vernon.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . . It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.
